

CPP PROFILE

ASIS proudly congratulates the thousands of professionals who have sought and attained the CPP—the profession's highest recognition.

The CPP is an internationally recognized security management designation!

Carla Naudé, CPP

Security Manager
Century City Limited
Cape Town, South Africa

Industry: Private, Operational Security Project Consultancy and Management

Job Responsibility: Risk assessments, planning, and management of client security operations, including Occupational Health and Safety and Disaster Management

Education: Bachelor degree in Criminology and Communication Science.
Diploma in HR Management

Years in Security: 23 Year Earned CPP: 1996 Year Joined ASIS: 1995

Why I Pursued the CPP: "It proved to me and my employer that the experience and knowledge gained was worthwhile and relevant in my new private security environment."

How the CPP Benefits Me: "Apart from gaining peer recognition, it demands continuous dedication and energy to remain current to maintain certification. It also challenges me to look beyond the day-to-day trenches."

Value of the CPP: "The CPP places one in a category where professionalism and adherence to ethics reign supreme. It is the internationally recognized security management designation."

Why Security Professionals Pursue the CPP Designation: "It is proof of the individual's "arrival" as a security professional and manager."

Achievements: Guest lecturer. Various elected Chapter positions since 1996. Responsible for co-ordinating CPP review programs in 1996 and 1997. 2002 RVP for Region 43, Southern Africa. Member of the South African Security Association since 1999, and elected to the Executive Committee of the Western Cape for 2001-2002. Member of the International Foundation of Protection Officers.

