

CPP PROFILE

ASIS proudly congratulates the thousands of professionals who have sought and attained the CPP—the profession's highest recognition.

Credibility with Colleagues

CHRIS M. WRIGHT, CPP

Industry: Pre-employment screening, workplace violence prevention, security survey, business technology

Job Responsibility: CEO of her own investigative agency

Education: St. Mary's College

Years in Security: 13      Year Earned CPP: 1997      Year Joined ASIS: 1989

Why I Pursued the CPP: "I pursued the CPP at the insistence of my boss. I have always worked on the investigation side of the house and didn't see the need for the CPP designation. I was really wrong, and not the first time."

How the CPP Benefits Me: "I have found that the CPP designation gives me credibility with my colleagues, greater access to higher buying levels in company management, more leadership opportunities with ASIS and other organizations (ATAP, CFE, CIPI, SHRM, PIHRA). My income has also increased since I have more skill sets to offer."

Value of the CPP: "I have a wonderful cadre of folks to draw on for assistance. I've never had another CPP turn me down when I've asked for help."

Achievements: Chris is the ASIS Region 03 RVP, a past ARVP for Region 03, a former Chapter Chair for the Orange County Chapter of ASIS, and a former Vice Chair for one year, Program Chair for two years, and Chapter Treasurer for five years. She's a member of the Anaheim Chamber of Commerce, The Women's Chamber Group, American Business Women's Association, the High Technology Crime Investigation Association, The Association of Threat Assessment Professionals and is a contributing author to the Complete Workplace Violence Prevention Manual, which is highly regarded as a reference tool for such programs throughout the United States and Canada. Chris is also a certified sport official for baseball, softball, and volleyball at the high school and college levels and the Current Chief Umpire for five Little Leagues.
