

PCI RECERTIFICATION CREDIT GUIDE

(15 total points required in three-year term)

NOTE:

1. All activities must relate to security as defined by the content specifications of the relevant examination. Certificants must be able to link each submitted activity to a DOMAIN/TASK/KNOWLEDGE statement of the exam content. Here is the link: <http://www.asisonline.org/certification/pci/pcistructure.xml>
2. Limited safety and fire prevention activity points may be claimed. See 2.6
3. The PCB will review, on a case-by-case basis, certificants' requests for extensions caused by military duty in a war zone, effects of a major disaster or as a result of special circumstances.
4. Some or all of your activities may qualify for credit under more than one certification.

	Per Activity	Limit per term
1. Membership
1.1 Membership in a nonprofit professional investigation or other security-related association.	2	6
2. Educational Programs and Courses The topics of the courses must be relevant to the practice of security ie., the domains of the PCI examination as defined by the professional Certification Board (PCB)
2.1 Attendance at a chartered investigation or other security -related organization's annual or other major conference of three or more days.	4	Unlimited
2.2 Attendance at seminar or workshop of two or more days sponsored by a chartered investigation or other security-related organization.	1 per day/ 4 per week/max of 8 per extended program-unlimited
2.3 Successful completion of an investigation or other security-related 3 credit course at an accredited college or university – including Internet/distance learning, and CD-ROM or other self-study program that results in college or university credit.	6	Unlimited
2.4 Participation in or attendance at, investigation or other security -related programs (such as ASIS chapters speakers); educational web or audio forum; self study of web or forum proceedings.	1 hour = .50	Unlimited
2.5 Participation and/or attendance at an investigation or other security-related exhibit.	1	Unlimited
2.6 Up to three points per three-year term will be allowed for attending or speaking/teaching at function-specific seminars, workshops, and academic courses in the areas of safety, environmental safety, fire prevention and personal protection : A) The topics of the courses must be relevant to the practice of investigation, i.e., the domains of the examination as defined by the Professional Certification Board (PCB); and B) Must be for the professional development of investigation practitioners.	3
3. Instruction, Speeches and Other Presentations The topics of the courses must be relevant to the practice of security ie., the domains of the PCI examination as defined by the professional Certification Board (PCB)
3.1 Initial preparation or major modifications of course work for serving as principal instructor or speaker for an investigation or other security-related course at an accredited college or university. ¹ (Documentation must show changes)	5 Per topic	Unlimited
3.2 As an instructor, speaker or panelist at an investigation or other security-related education program . (Minimum of 30-minutes presentation)	2 Per topic	Unlimited
3.3 Chapter Study Courses: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Planning the entire Study Course including multiple meetings = 3 • Mentoring a student thru the entire Study Course = 2 • A specific role in conduct of the course = 2 	unlimited
4. Publications² The topics of the courses must be relevant to the practice of security ie., the domains of the PCI examination as

¹ Contractually responsible for implementation of program

² Any other kind of publication may be submitted for eligibility review to the Professional Certification Board

defined by the professional Certification Board (PCB)
4.1 Investigation or other security-related book.	12	unlimited
4.2 Investigation or other security-related article in recognized periodical.	3	unlimited
4.3 Monograph, booklet or contribution of chapter to book on investigation or other security-related topics.	3	unlimited
4.4 Book review published in recognized periodical.	1	unlimited
5. Program Service - Participation in:
5.1 Item Development Group	4	12
5.2 Guidelines Commission	4	12
5.3 Role Delineation preparation	4	12
5.4 Pass Point study	3	9
5.5 Active participation in security organizations' domain-related Committees or Councils	3	9
5.6 Evaluation of Annual Seminar Calls for Presentation	2	6
5.7 Role Delineation questionnaire	1	3
6. Public Service The topics of the courses must be relevant to the practice of security i.e., the domains of the PCI examination as defined by the professional Certification Board (PCB). Eligible activities include those for a charitable, religious, governmental or community entity that is performed pro-bono. PCB will determine points to be awarded based on scope of activity, value to recipient, accomplishments vis-à-vis objectives and time spent.	At discretion of PCB
7. Other Accomplishments The topics of the courses must be relevant to the practice of security ie., the domains of the PCI examination as defined by the professional Certification Board (PCB). Special activities related to professional development in investigations or other security fields.	At discretion of PCB

Final copy 12/15/05