

CHARGÉ D'AFFAIRES STEPHANIE WILLIAMS

Chargé d'Affaires Stephanie Williams joined the American Embassy in Manama, Bahrain in May 2010. She studied Arabic at the University of Bahrain from August 2009 to May 2010. From 2008-2009, Ms. Williams served as Director of Maghreb Affairs in the State Department's Near Eastern Bureau; she also served as the Deputy Director of Egypt and Levant Affairs from 2005-2007 and as the Jordan Desk Officer from 2003-2005. Her overseas assignments include Pakistan, Kuwait, and the United Arab Emirates. She joined the Foreign Service in 1994 after working in the private sector in Bahrain and for a non-governmental organization in Washington, D.C.

Ms. Williams holds a bachelor's degree in Government Relations and a bachelor's degree in Economics from the University of Maryland. She holds a master's degree in Arab Studies from Georgetown University and a master's degree in National Security Studies from the National War College. She is married to fellow Foreign Service Officer Tom Williams and they have two children.