

Pre-Conference Workshop: Doing Business in Libya – Post-revolution Challenges

During this interactive pre-conference session, an expert panel will discuss the current security situation in Libya and what we can do to mitigate risks for companies operating in this area. There will be opportunities for Q&A with the audience. This session will be especially of interest to security companies interested in operating in Libya. Take this opportunity to interact directly with the new government, Libyan business entities and private security companies active in Libya.

Opening remarks: Judge Kamal Elhouni, National Contact Group and Member of the Constitutional Draft Committee, Libya

Panel: Issam Elhouni, CEO and owner of Siwa Oil Services, Libya
Paul Beat, Director Middle East & Africa, Control Risks, UAE
Peter Dordal, Senior Vice President, GardaWorld, UAE

Moderator: Pierre Haddad, Editor-in-Chief, The Security Review, UAE

The workshop will take approximately 1 hour and will be followed by an opportunity for networking. Seats are limited to approximately 40 attendees. Please send an email to middleeast@asisonline.org to reserve your seat. Reservations will be taken on a first-come-first-serve basis.
