

Resource Manual for Victims of Crime

ASIS International Foundation project to raise awareness of victims' services among private and corporate security managers

This project was supported by Grant No. 2005 VFGXK019 awarded by the Office for Victims of Crime, Office of Justice Programs, U.S.
Department of Justice. Points of view in this document are those of the author and do not necessarily represent the official position or policies of the U.S. Department of Justice.

Resource Manual for Victims of Crime

The ASIS International Foundation designed this resource manual to improve the capacity of the private corporate security profession to address and respond to victim concerns in the workplace. Security professionals must keep pace with law enforcement and criminal justice in order to ensure that correct and timely victim services are provided where and when they are needed. Information in this guide includes:

- Violent Crimes
- Crimes Affecting Immigrant or Minority Populations
- Motor Vehicle Crimes
- Crimes Pertaining to Children
- Victims of Crimes with Disabilities
- Financial Crimes
- Hate Crimes
- Stalking
- Domestic Violence
- Sexual Assault

Additionally, the Office for Victims of Crime (OVC) Web site, www.ojp.usdoj.gov/ovc, offers numerous links to resources that may be of interest to your employees who are victims of a crime. The OVC's Directory of Crime Victim Services is designed to help service providers and individuals locate nonemergency crime victim services in the U.S. and abroad.

We hope that this guide will enable you to find resource information quickly for employees that may need assistance in these areas.

ASIS International (ASIS) is the preeminent organization for security professionals, with more than 35,000 members worldwide. Founded in 1955, ASIS is dedicated to increasing the effectiveness and productivity of security professionals by developing educational programs and materials that address broad security interests, such as the ASIS Annual Seminar and Exhibits, as well as specific security topics. ASIS also advocates the role and value of the security management profession to business, the media, governmental entities, and the general public. By providing members and the security community with access to a full range of programs and services, and by publishing the industry's number one magazine, Security Management, ASIS leads the way for advanced and improved security performance. For more information, visit www.asisonline.org.

The ASIS International Foundation, a 501(c)3 charitable organization, provides funding and manages endowments for a wide range of academic, strategic, and professional development activities. The purpose of the Foundation is to enhance the security profession worldwide by establishing, developing, delivering, and promoting programs that advance security through education, research, and training. The Foundation, through the awarding of scholarships, ensures those pursuing a career in security management are able to realize the highest academic achievements. Support for the Foundation is achieved through financial contributions from individuals, chapters, and companies employing ASIS members, and corporations with an interest in security.
