

Table of Contents

Acknowledgments	iii
Section 1. Introduction and Overview	1
1.1 Why Would Terrorists Target Schools and Universities?	2
1.2 Purpose of This Guide	4
1.3 Our Approach to Security	5
Section 2. The School/University Security Program Checklist	7
Section 3. Helping School/University Administrators Address the Needs of Students and Teachers	15
Section 4. Conventional Terrorism	19
4.1 Bombs and Explosive Devices	19
4.2 What Does a Bomb Look Like?	19
4.3 Increasing Awareness	20
4.4 Dealing With Suspicious Packages and Letters	22
4.5 Sample Plan for Dealing With Bomb Threats and Actual Bomb Explosions	25
Section 5. Chemical Terrorism	31
5.1 Chemical Agents	32
5.2 How Your Campus Can Be Attacked With a Chemical Agent	34
5.3 Prevention	39
5.4 Developing an Emergency Plan for Dealing With Chemical Terrorism	40

5.5 Sample Plan for Dealing With Chemical Terrorism	41
Section 6. Biological Terrorism	45
6.1 Biological Agents	46
6.2 How Your School Could Be Attacked With a Biological Agent	59
6.3 How to Minimize Serious Injury or Possible Death	60
6.4 Response	62
Section 7. Nuclear and Radiological Terrorism ...	67
7.1 Nuclear Explosions	67
7.2 Radiological Explosions	68
7.3 Nuclear and Radiological Decontamination	69
Section 8. Concluding Note on Disaster Planning	71
Appendix A: In a Nutshell—Making Your School and Universities Safe From Terrorism	73
Appendix B: Counterterrorism and Emergency Preparedness Websites	77
Appendix C: The Homeland Security Advisory System	79
Appendix D: Glossary	81
Index	105
About the Authors	111