Based on the ASIS International Strategic Plan what three goals do you feel are the most critical to the Society over the next three years and why?

Global. Security is global, as business is. We need to keep understanding the cultural and security environment around the world.

Membership/ESRM. Provide the membership with the best educational possibilities to be competitive and to promote the profession.

Certifications. Stand as the must go certification Worldwide.

Please describe your specific view of the role of a member of the Board of Directors.

Strategic. Understand the value of diversity, and promote the same.

What professional efforts and accomplishments within ASIS and outside (not simply roles you have held) make you deserving of this candidacy?

Current member of the Board of Directors. Very involved in the changes we are developing. Recently recognized as one of the Most Influential Security Professionals by the Magazine Seguridad in America.
