

ASIS proudly congratulates the thousands of professionals who have sought and attained the CPP—the profession's highest recognition.

“Internationally recognized level of knowledge”

John C. Azbill, CPP
Security Manager
Wyeth-Ayerst Pharmaceuticals
Paoli, PA

Industry: Private Security

Job Responsibility: Manages security operations at two Wyeth-Ayerst Pharmaceuticals locations.

Education: Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice

Years in Security: 11 Year Earned CPP: 1997 Year Joined ASIS: 1996

Why I Pursued the CPP: “I saw the CPP as a way to prove to my employer and fellow security professionals that I have achieved a level of expertise in my field.”

How the CPP Benefits Me: “The designation gives me a level of credibility with my superiors and peers. It shows that I have the discipline and commitment to stay current with effective security management practices.”

Value of the CPP: “The CPP offers an internationally recognized level of knowledge in security practices that not only benefits me, but my employer as well.”

Why Security Professionals Pursue the CPP Designation: “I think all good professionals try to be the best in their field of expertise. Attaining the CPP shows that you’re striving to measure up to accepted standards and are willing to dedicate the time and effort needed to become an expert in your field.”

Achievements: Mr. Azbill served as Secretary of the ASIS Greater Philadelphia chapter in 2000. In 2000 and 2001, he chaired the ASIS Philadelphia Career Day to introduce area high school students to careers in private security. Mr. Azbill is currently serving as the 2002 Host Committee Vice Chairperson for the ASIS International 48th Annual Seminar & Exhibits.