

CPP PROFILE

ASIS proudly congratulates the thousands of professionals who have sought and attained the CPP—the profession's highest recognition.

Open the door to career opportunities

Murray Montgomery, Jr., CPP
Physical Security Specialist
Product Security Branch
Department of Treasury
Bureau of Engraving and Printing

Industry: Security

Job Responsibility: Conduct physical security inspections, surveys, and investigations required to provide a technically secure environment for the printing of U.S. currency, postage stamps, and other government securities that are produced by the Department of Treasury, Bureau of Engraving and Printing.

Education: Bachelor of Science, South Carolina State University

Years in Security: 17

Year Earned CPP: 1998

Year Joined ASIS: 1997

Why I Support the CPP: “The CPP designation reflects the knowledge and understanding of progressive concepts, principles, and best practices in several major areas of security. It validates me as a security professional, committed to excellence, with a strong adherence to a required Code of Ethical Conduct.

How the CPP Benefits Me: “It has elevated me to an elite group of security professionals with whom I share a common bond. The recertification requirement ensures that I stay abreast of the latest global trends, challenges, and technologies in the security industry.”

Why I Pursued the CPP: “I pursued the CPP designation because it is recognized by security professionals around the world as a Commitment to Excellence. I view the CPP program as a vehicle to help promote the concept of diversity at every level within the security industry. Most importantly, I want to serve as a mentor and inspire others to become leaders in the security profession by obtaining the CPP designation.”

Achievements: Mr. Montgomery has received certificates of completion for training from the Federal Law Enforcement Training Center (FLETC) and The Alpha Group for Crime and Intelligence Analysis. In January 2001, he was appointed Co-Chair of the Membership Committee for the National Organization of Black Law Enforcement Executives (NOBLE), Washington, D.C. Chapter. Mr. Montgomery is a Life Member of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc.

