

ASIS proudly congratulates the thousands of professionals who have sought and attained the CPP—the profession's highest recognition.

The CPP designation identifies me as an accomplished security professional!

MICHAEL A. CRANE, CPP

Vice President and General Counsel
IPC International Corporation
Bannockburn, IL

Industry: Investigative, protection, and consultant services

Job Responsibility: Support liaison to legal, risk management, and investigative oversight.

Education: Law Degree

Years in Security: 26

Year Earned CPP: 1994

Year Joined ASIS: 1995

Why I Support the CPP: "The CPP designation awarded by ASIS acknowledges an individual's expertise in the security profession."

How the CPP Benefits Me: "Having the CPP designation identifies me as an accomplished security professional."

Value of the CPP: "The CPP certification enhances the organization where the individual is employed and affirms to clients and customers that they are working with knowledgeable and ethical security professionals."

Why Security Professionals Pursue the CPP Designation: "Acquiring and maintaining the CPP certification requires a level of expertise and continuous education to keep abreast of the latest in technology, security trends, issues, and solutions affecting the security industry."

Achievements: Mr. Crane has lectured extensively on workplace violence and legal liability in the security industry, and is an adjunct professor at Webster University's Graduate Security Management Program. He also is a Certified Fraud Examiner (CFE). Mr. Crane has been appointed an ASIS Council Vice President for 2001, and he was previously the Chairman of the Crime & Loss Prevention Committee. He serves on the ASIS Global Business Strategies Commission and recently led a delegation, on behalf of ASIS, that addressed workplace violence issues to members of Congress.

