

CPP PROFILE

ASIS proudly congratulates the thousands of professionals who have sought and attained the CPP—the profession's highest recognition.

A DESIGNATION LIKE NO OTHER!

RONALD JONES, CPP

Security Officer
BHP Diamonds
Yellowknife, Northwest Territories, Canada

Industry: Private Security

Job Responsibility: Providing private security for company personnel, assets, and property.

Education: Business management; Financial management; Commercial crime investigation; Criminal investigation; and VIP security

Years in Security: 25 years, Royal Canadian Mounted Police; 3 years, Private Security

Year Earned CPP: 1999 Year Joined ASIS: 1998

Why I Support the CPP: "When working in an industry, you should always strive to meet the highest industry standard. The CPP, for me, represents that standard of credibility and professionalism."

How the CPP Benefits Me: "The CPP designation challenges me to stay current with business trends and technology. It is my commitment to the industry and in turn, my company benefits through the ongoing education programs and seminars associated with the CPP designation."

Value of the CPP: "The CPP designation promotes professionalism and commitment to the industry. By obtaining the CPP you force yourself to stay current with industry trends and best practices."

Why Security Professionals Pursue the CPP Designation: "The CPP designation is an achievement of excellence in the industry and is recognized internationally as the benchmark for security professionals."

Achievements: Mr. Jones retired from the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) after twenty-five years service. While with the RCMP he was posted to the Provinces of Saskatchewan, Manitoba, Newfoundland, and the Northwest Territories. He served for 14 years general duty policing, 6 years in the Financial Branch, and 5 years as a Commercial Crime Investigator, as well as VIP Security. Jones helped establish and was a Team Leader of the first RCMP Emergency Response Team in the Northwest Territories. He also assisted in the development of the Security Department at Ekati—Canada's first Diamond Mine.

