

CPP PROFILE

ASIS proudly congratulates the thousands of professionals who have sought and attained the CPP—the profession's highest recognition.

Ensure a Broad Knowledge in Security

Brad Minnis, CPP
Manager

Industry: Facility Security

Education: 3 years at Chabot College in Hayward, major of Supervision and Management with a minor in Electronics.

Years in Security: 22 Year Earned CPP: 1997 Year Joined ASIS: 1991

How the CPP benefits me: "I am recognized as a professional within the industry and receive significant additional benefits within the company I work for. The CPP also enhances my working relationship when interacting with other professionals internationally."

Value of the CPP: "I am recognized as a security professional when dealing with peers and others in the industry for my broad knowledge of the security profession."

Why Security Professionals Pursue the CPP Designation: "The CPP helps me to develop professionally and motivates me to stay on top of the knowledge required in all aspects of the profession."

Achievements: Mr. Minnis is the founding member of the Anti-Gray Market Alliance (AGMA). He is a member of ASIS International and International Electronics Security Group (IESG). Mr. Minnis shared his knowledge as a speaker at the 2001 ASIS Pacific Rim Conference, and served as the 2001 SFBA Chapter Treasurer. Mr. Minnis is currently the Vice-Chairman of the SFBA Chapter and will serve as 2003 Chapter Chairman.

