

CPP PROFILE

ASIS proudly congratulates the thousands of professionals who have sought and attained the CPP—the profession's highest recognition.

The CPP designation is a credential well earned and worth having!

Peter Mooney, CPP
Manager, Asset Protection
Corporate Security Group
Melbourne, Victoria, Australia

Industry: Postal Service (Corporate Security)

Job Responsibility: Corporate security and crime prevention consultancy services for Australia Post nationally.

Education: Tertiary qualifications in Security Management, Transport Administration and specific courses on Crime Prevention, Risk Management, Protective Security, Management and Leadership.

Years in Security: 20      Year Earned CPP: 1998      Year Joined ASIS: 1993

Why I Pursued the CPP: "I wanted to see how I measured up to security professionals internationally and to be among the first to earn the CPP designation in Australia."

Value of the CPP: "Pursuing the CPP improves your depth of knowledge in all facets of security and opens the door to resources worldwide. The CPP accreditation is steadily increasing in value in Australia as more security professionals achieve the designation."

Why Security Professionals Pursue the CPP Designation: "The CPP is a recognized international benchmark in the security profession. Attaining the designation demonstrates an individual's dedication and commitment to professional development and challenges professionals to keep their knowledge current."

Achievements: Mr. Mooney is a member of the Executive Committee of the Australian Chapter of ASIS, CPP Coordinator for the chapter and ARVP CPP for Region XL. He was awarded the ASIS International 2001 Region XL Award for Distinguished Achievement relative to the CPP program. Mr. Mooney is the Australia Post's representative on Commonwealth Government Security committees and forums. He has published articles on handling suspect mail and given presentations at Australian security conferences.

