

Biography

Donald McInnes PSP, SET, CHS-III, CAT-II, CFAT-II, CFAD, CSI

National Training Instructor, Stanley Security

Don is a veteran security professional with 44+ years of experience in various roles in technical, operations, and sales working the commercial, industrial, and government security systems markets. Mr. McInnes has expertise in the management of physical, personnel, technical, and procedural security and security administration. He possesses in-depth knowledge of security management, security countermeasures and vulnerabilities, subversive tactics, and techniques to penetrate, sabotage, steal, or destroy assets. He is also well versed in State and Federal legislation, codes and standards, regulations, policies and procedures applicable to security operations.

Mr. McInnes holds numerous industry certifications and is an industry educator, including positions as Adjunct Instructor with Fox Valley Technical College in Wisconsin and is an ESA NTS Certified Instructor. Mr. McInnes is past Chair of the education committee of the ASIS Physical Security Council and current Ambassador. He is a 25+-year member of ASIS and assistant Law Enforcement liaison for the ASIS Greater Milwaukee chapter.