FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

“ASIS International Invites Abstracts for ASIS Europe 2014”

Brussels, 11 June 2013 – ASIS International, the world’s premier association for security professionals, has announced the opening of the call for presentations for its Annual European Security Conference & Exhibition which will take place in The Hague, The Netherlands on 1-3 April 2014.

Around 500 security professionals, corporate executives, consultants and government officials are expected to attend 33 high-level educational sessions divided over three parallel tracks that will cover a wide range of security issues.

The conference will also feature:

- Three keynote presentations
- Dedicated educational sessions for Chief Security Officers (CSOs) and their deputies organised by the CSO Roundtable of ASIS International;
- A growing exhibition featuring the latest in security technology and services, and;
- Unrivalled networking opportunities at the President’s Reception, lunches and networking breaks.

ASIS welcomes abstracts on all security related topics. However, topics of particular interest are: critical infrastructure protection, supply chain security, loss prevention, hotel security and soft targets protection, intellectual property, maritime piracy, terrorism, executive protection, internal theft and fraud, competitive intelligence, brand protection, physical security, cyber security, investigations, due diligence and global business issues.

ASIS invites potential speakers to submit their abstracts for presentations before 8 September 2013 online at www.asisonline.org/thehague. Interested individuals should note that presentation slots are limited to 50 minutes and should include time for Q&A. Moreover, only English-language presentations will be accepted.

About ASIS International:

ASIS International (ASIS) is the premier association for professionals responsible for security, with 38,000 members worldwide. Founded in 1955, ASIS is dedicated to increasing the effectiveness and productivity of security professionals by developing educational programmes and materials that address broad security interests, such as the ASIS International Annual Seminar and Exhibits, as well as specific security topics. ASIS also advocates the role and value of the security management profession to business, the media, governmental entities and the general public. By providing members and the security community with access to a full range of programmes and services, and by publishing the industry's leading magazine, Security Management, ASIS leads the way for advanced and improved security performance.
