Chief Executive Officer

Dear Security Professional:

Thank you for your interest in ASIS International (ASIS), the preeminent organization for security professionals.

Founded in 1955, ASIS leads the way for advanced and improved security performance through education, information, credentials, industry standards and guidelines, advocacy, and more. The scope of our professional development and global networking opportunities is unmatched. Our members within the public and private sectors have full and exclusive access to the information resources required to keep pace with security issues and concerns, as well as strategies for mitigating risk to people, property, and information. Additionally, and most importantly, our members have the ability to build and sustain long-term industry relationships within our vast global network of professionals.

ASIS members receive unrivaled benefits including:

- Exclusive access to the online membership directory
- Monthly issues of the top-rated Security Management magazine
- Registration fee savings on the most comprehensive educational and networking event in the industry—the ASIS International Annual Seminar and Exhibits—as well as on dozens of professional development programs throughout the year
- Access to the ASIS Career Center/Security Jobs website
- Local chartered chapter affiliation and volunteer opportunities
- Free digital copy of the full set of ASIS Standards and Guidelines, valued at over $1,900
- Free digital copy of the ASIS Foundation Connecting Research in Security Practice (CRISP) reports
- Latest information on innovative technologies, products, and services currently employed by business and government from the ASIS Security Management Buyers Guide
- Outstanding professional development and leadership opportunities, free access to reference librarians, savings on publications, and more!

Joining ASIS is an investment in you, and your professional development. Your membership will open numerous opportunities, including high-level networking with security practitioners on a global scale.

Through these networking opportunities, and other educational resources, you will gain valuable skills and experience, which can be utilized in the everyday work place. These experiences and opportunities will unequivocally benefit YOU and your EMPLOYER.

For more information, or for questions, please visit the membership area of the ASIS website at www.asisonline.org or contact our ASIS Member Services team at +1.703.519.6200 or by e-mail at asis@asisonline.org.

Thank you for your interest, and we look forward to welcoming you to the leading organization dedicated to advancing security worldwide.

Sincerely,

ASIS Board of Directors
