2018 ASIS Foundation / Transitions Ad Hoc Council Law Enforcement Certification Scholarship

Applications accepted between 1 April and 31 May 2018.

PURPOSE: The ASIS Foundation is committed to supporting ASIS members by providing scholarships that help individuals achieve their professional goals in security and related professions. Through a partnership between the ASIS Foundation and the Transition Ad Hoc Council, scholarships will be offered in 2018 to provide a set of certification reference materials, an online certification review course (available for CPP and PSP only), and a voucher that will enable the scholarship recipient to apply to take the exam for a specific ASIS Certification.

To qualify, you must:

- Be an active law enforcement officer
- Be an ASIS member in good standing
- Be prepared to meet the requirements of the desired ASIS board certification

Your complete application must include:

1. Nomination letter signed by department/agency chief or director
2. A 250 to 300-word essay to explain why you are a strong candidate and the reason you are applying for this scholarship (1-page, double-spaced, 12 pt. Arial / Times New Roman)
3. Resume or CV

Please be sure you have reviewed the ASIS Board certification qualifications to ensure you are prepared for taking the exam. For additional details on each item listed above, please go online to www.asisfoundation.org.
